Dear Diary,

Well, here it is — my fourth & last year at good ol' M.S.C.

I thought I'd never get this far!

Registration
was impossible as usual. After standing in lines at the old gym trying to get my classes, I went to dinner, just to join another line!

It really seemed weird the first day...
For some reason I just don't feel the way I always thought a college senior should feel. So many kids are student-teaching or out on internships... I wonder what it will be like next year when I'm on my own.

I hear the only summer here at Mansfield is July 4th.
I believe it.

Monsoon season
lasts from Sept.
'til May. We only get a break during the winter blizzards.

I heard some new group took over the caf. something must be different, because the food wasn't half bad. They even have dip-it yourself ice cream cones!

Mansfield has given me one thing that will be hard to get rid of -
Big Legs!

Boy, can these hills get to you after awhile.

Mountain goats
would love it here.

It's really good to see everyone again. Much as I wished summer
would never end, this place really does grow on ya
after awhile...
It's good to be back. Everything's great - all the parties, kids,
Outnams, shingles.
Too bad we have to go to classes.

Special Events

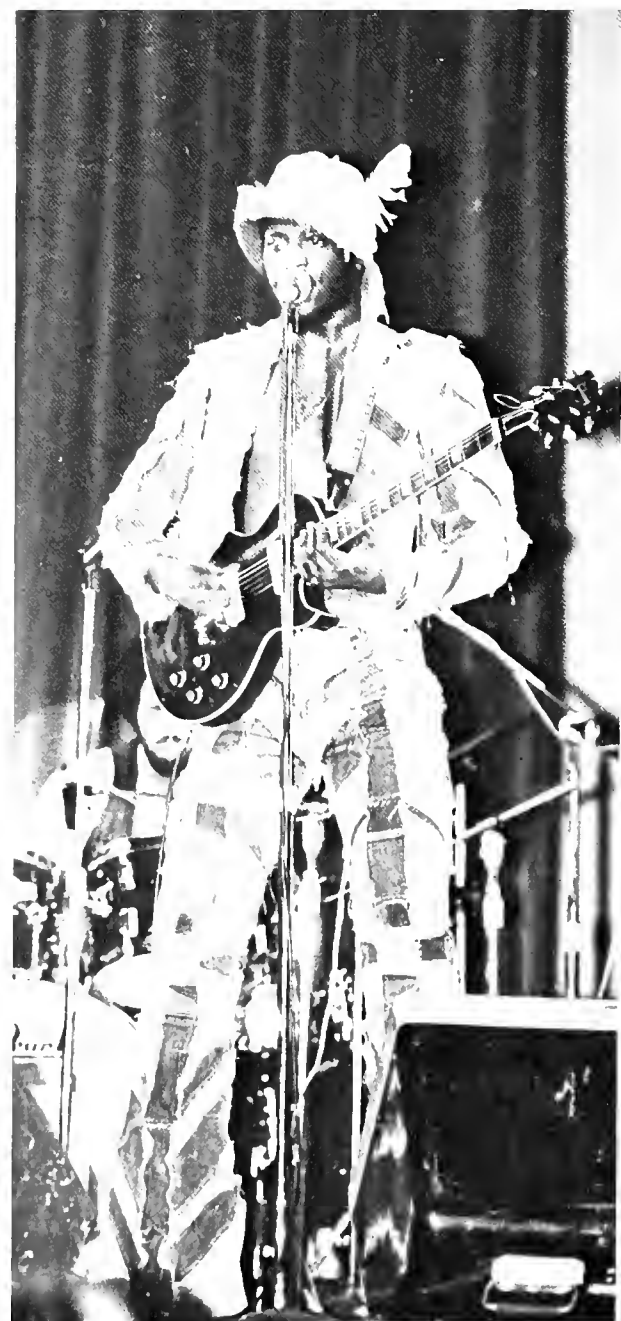

Dear Diary,

I've been rushing around all morning. It's parents' weekend and my folks will be here any minute. I had to straighten up, hide my beer cans, clean out my ash tray, change my posters and give my "potted" plant to my neighbor across the hall.

Dear Diary,

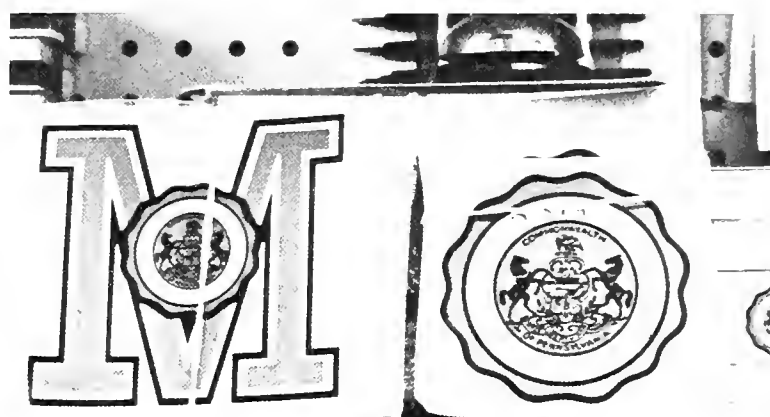

A bunch of us saw the team practicing today. I don't know where those kids get all their patience and loyalty to stick with it day after day. I know I couldn't hack it!

On March 19, 1975, Edinboro State entered in a contest with Mansfield State College with a few memories in mind. One of these memories is a meeting between Edinboro State and Mansfield which was held at Mansfield in 1968. Mansfield State won the encounter 106-65. That year Edinboro won the state championship crown. Edinboro's most recent encounter with Mansfield was this season on December 9, 1974. Edinboro won the game by a score of 77-60. The Mounties remembered that night Stan Mahan told a few of the Edinboro players that we would be seeing them again at Mansfield for the state championship — his prediction came true.

Mansfield was hoping for its fourth state championship, the first one being in 1964. Emotions were high as Mansfield had just beaten powerful Cheyney State to win the eastern crown and needed the win over Edinboro to put Mansfield in contention for an NCAA bid.

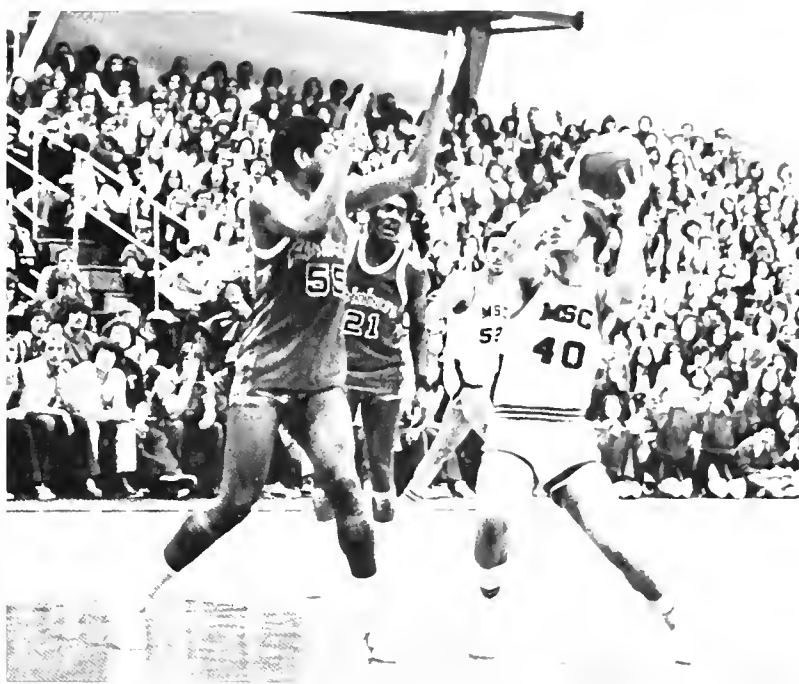

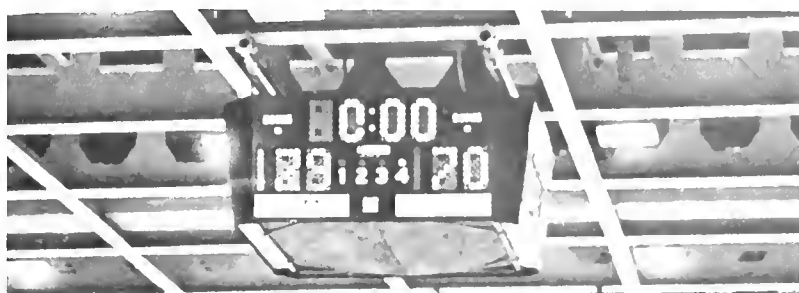

Coach Wilson could feel the sense of confidence that the players and fans exhibited. Edinboro was ranked in the top twenty at that time and Mounties wanted to prove that they were the best.

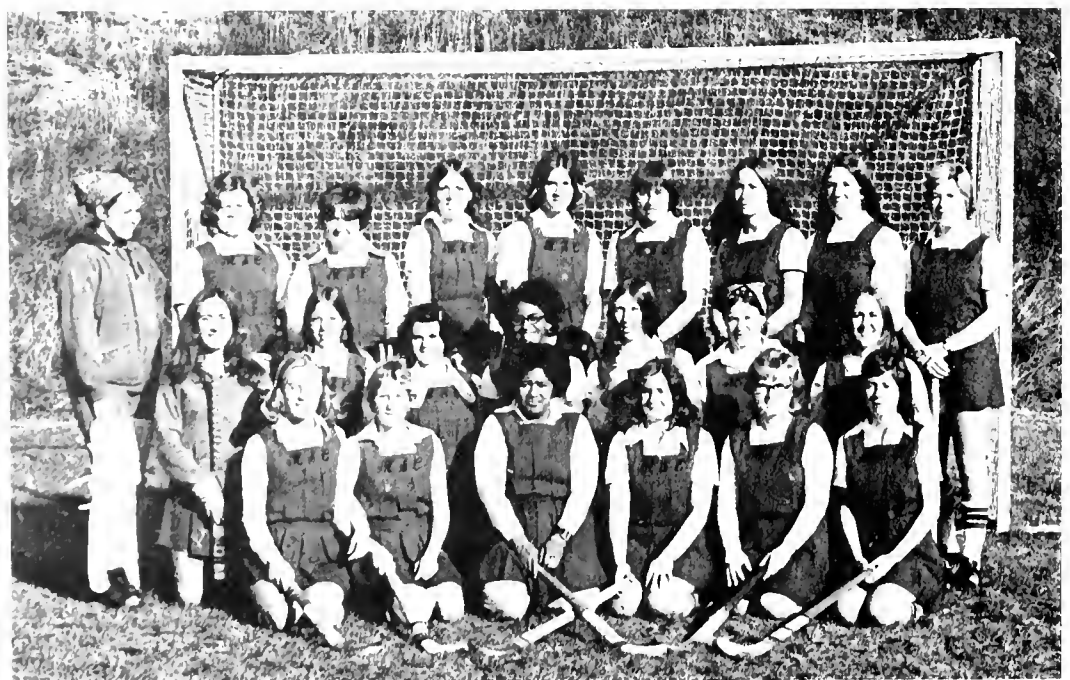

Mansfield opened the game with fine shooting and aggressive defense and opened a 10-2 lead. The game was close throughout most of the first half with the Mounties opening up a 15 point half time lead. The aggressive Mounties were able to maintain a spread throughout the second half winning the contest 79-70, and returning the state crown again to Mansfield State College. The game was truly a team effort. All year the Mounties won on good defense and team offense.

The memory of this game will live in the minds of the Mansfield State College family.

Dear Diary,

It's one of those days. Seems like everything is going wrong. I woke up to find out they had turned off the water in the dorm. Then, my electric curlers broke down. Then, I went to breakfast, stood in line for 20 minutes and had to gobble down my hard 'soft boiled' egg five minutes before class. Finally, I got to class 10 minutes late only to find the girl in front of me giving my exact speech. - How many people give speeches on popcorn?

I never could remember if you added water to acid or acid
 to water!

Gave the chem prof
a real scare today when I blew up the experiment.

The elevator
broke again today. It's only the 5th time this year.

Don't they think we get enough exercise
trudging
up & down
these hills in the snow?

The nerve of some people!
Imagine stealing
my favorite, old,
torn up jeans from the dryer! I only left the laundry room for five minutes!

Why is it
that these profs think theirs is the only class I have? What do they think we are walking computers?

You can always tell when pledging starts. People start disappearing and when they return they're covered with paint.

This place is really getting to me. Remember how good the food was in Sept.? Well, I take it back.

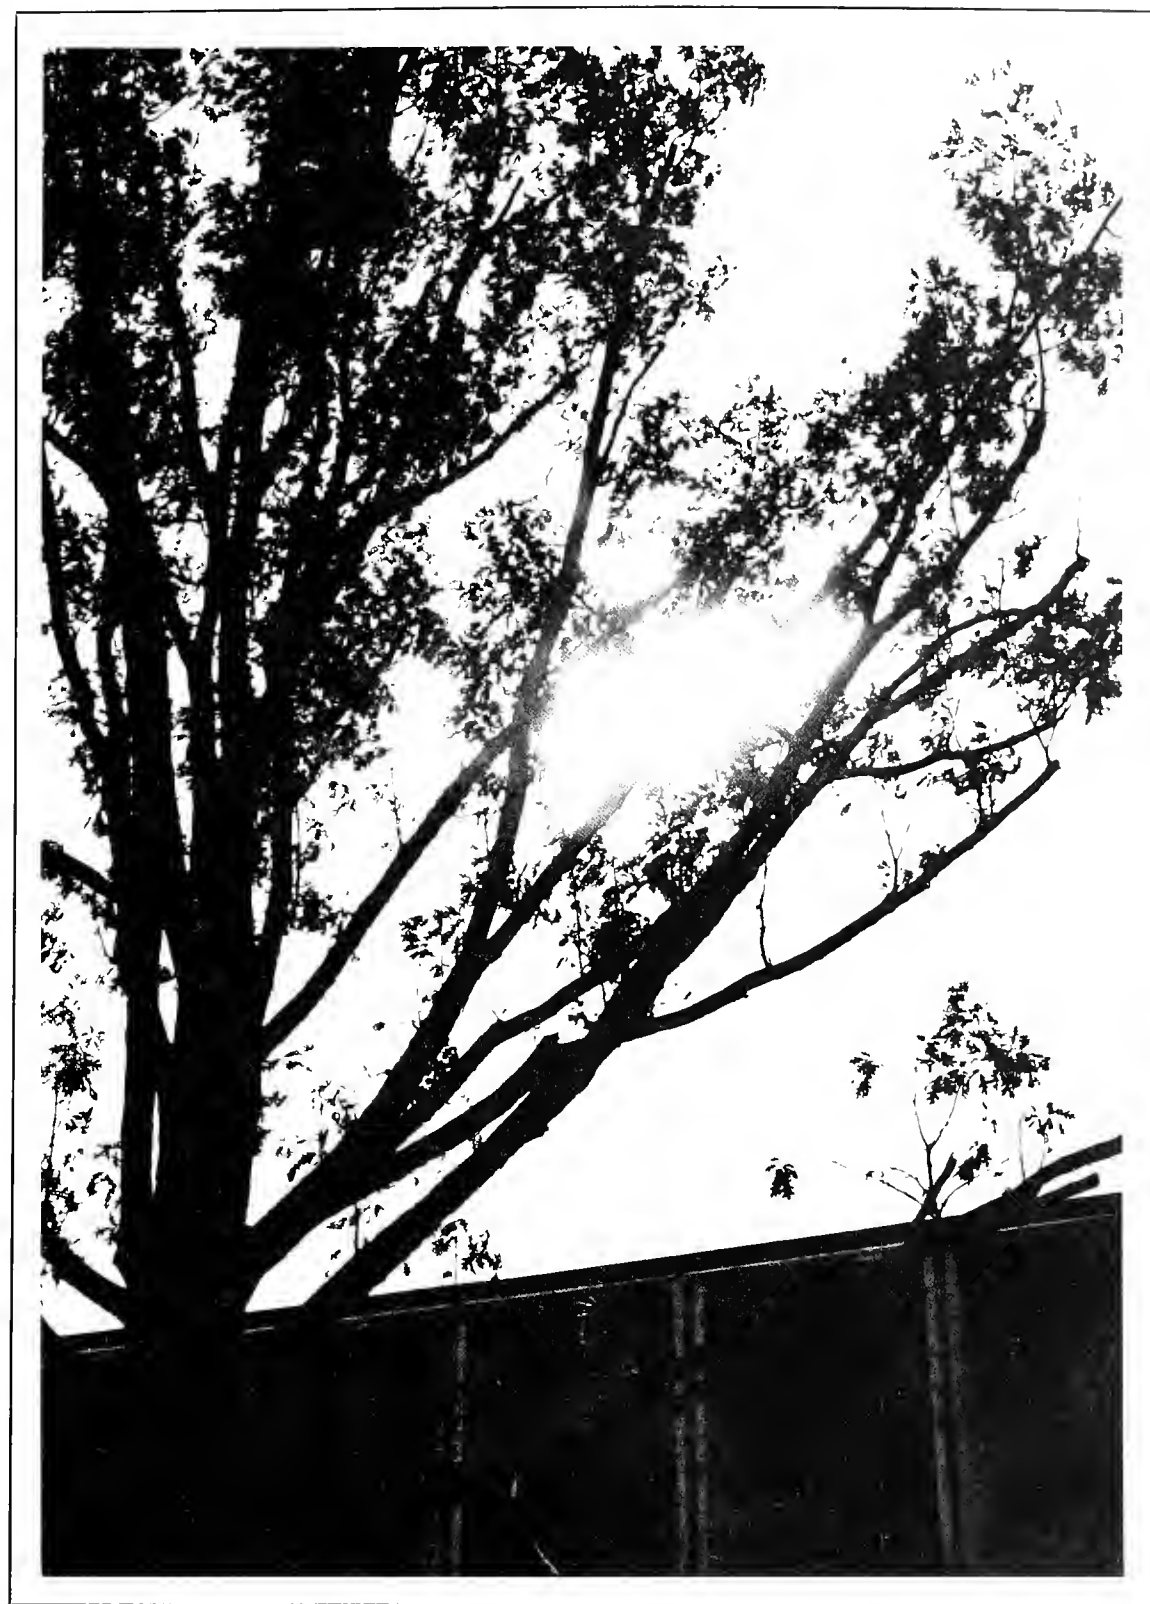

I can't wait to go home for Christmas to have a decent home cooked meal!

Administration

Dear Diary,
The administrators are always around when I'm desperate, like when I lose my meal ticket or hate my roommate.

Friday's Coming

Dear Diary,

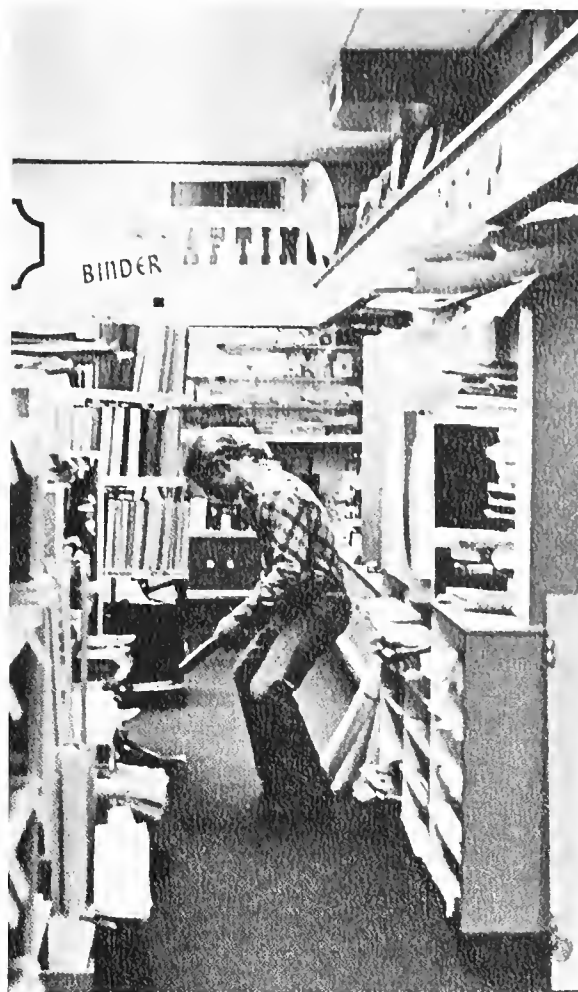

Wouldn't you know it! Just when my 30 page term paper is due the library decides to put in air conditioning.

Just found out my teacher only ordered 25 books for our class... Figures I'd be the 26th
student.

The sign says,
"Please remove coat before entering." What do they think I'm going to do? Try to put a poster board under my jacket?

Good old infirmary!
Wait 'till my throat
swells completely shut, then they'll tell me I have a sore throat.

The students' answer to Manser...

I don't believe it!
They've scheduled me
for 4 exams
the same day.

Dr Virginia Smith
Commencement Speaker

Dear Diary,
How did I ever make it?
Today is graduation and it seems like only yesterday I was a freshman...
